Live 3D Poker Launches Innovative 3D Poker Software and Web Site

Poker players can now play virtually against opponents from around the world

CURACAO, NETHERLANDS ANTILLES – April 25, 2005 – Today marks the launch of Live 3D Poker (www.live3dpoker.com), a brand new online poker community designed to offer players some of the most realistic game play available anywhere on the internet. The site will give online poker players everywhere the opportunity to hone their card-playing skills by pitting themselves against other individuals from around the world in such popular games as Texas Hold 'Em and Omaha, with Stud and Draw variants coming soon.

Offering users a 3D poker environment with no other equal on the internet, Live 3D Poker features a true 3D space where 3D characters, or avatars, can exist and move around. It is the first step to virtual realism in online poker action.

"We're very excited to be launching Live 3D Poker today, as we believe online poker players are particularly drawn to sites that educate, as well as entertain," said Fred Luchetti, general manager, Live 3D Poker. "Our team of developers have worked tirelessly to ensure that Live 3D Poker provides users with cutting edge graphics and advanced game play functionality to ensure the best online poker experience possible."

The Live 3D Poker site features free downloadable client software for both PC and Mac users, making Live 3D Poker the first online poker site to offer a downloadable client designed specifically to run on the Mac operating system.

With the estimated value of wagers through online poker sites worldwide in 2005 approaching US$60 billion, Live 3D Poker is well-positioned to take advantage of the explosive rate of growth in this exciting, emerging sector of the worldwide online gaming industry.
